EXCLUSIVELY YOURS

By BETTY BEALE

CANDY VAN ALLEN got a real surprise when she walked into her house yesterday at 6:30 and found a host of friends waiting to wish happy birthday. . . . Jimmy cooked up the whole thing without his wife knowing. Friends gathered while Candy had tea at the Peruvian Embassy with Claribel Berckemeyer. Senator and Mrs. Fulbright arrived with her cousin Lady Barnby and Lord Barnby who are in town until Tuesday; then will go to Boston where the latter has wool interests. . . . The David Keys, the Gates Lloyds, Bob Gray, Owen and Morris Cafritz, the French Ambassador, Dick Howland, and Helen Coolidge who helped Jimmy with the surprise plans were in the group. . . .
